

Instructions: Complete this form and return it to Jennifer M. Hames at Post Office Box 278, Lincolnton, North Carolina 28092 with your check for $650.00 (attorney fee, $225.00 filing fee to the Clerk of Court, $20.00 filing fee for motion for summary judgment and service fee for opposing parties in North Carolina). The divorce complaint will be completed and you will be called to come in and sign it. This fee includes one service attempt in the State of North Carolina. In the event this attempt is unsuccessful, you may need to deposit an additional funds into trust to cover additional attorney fees and service attempts. Any funds remaining at the completion of service will be refunded. Once service is completed, we will finalize the divorce after six weeks. If you would like to resume your maiden name, please indicate below and add $10.00 to the fee.

You will not need to appear in court. An Absolute Divorce waives any claim to property, debt distribution, or alimony you may have unless a claim is pending at the time of divorce. In the event you have any questions regarding property or support, please schedule a consultation with Attorney Hames prior to completing this form.
